Celebrating the Life of First Lady Princess Parker

The Obituary

Missionary Princess Wynona Parker was born January 27, 1971 to Madyson and Wynona Church in Chicago, Illinois. She was educated in the public schools of Chicago, and along with her family, later relocated to the State of California.

It was in a Holy Ghost revival at the Rising Star Church of God in Christ in the City of Sacramento, that Princess met the man of her dreams, Elder Jeffrey M. Parker, and it was love-at-first-sight. Within months, they were united in Holy Matrimony. From this beautiful union, four children were born: Princess, Jeffrey Jr., Joshua and Joseph.

Princess was quite an industrious woman, with a giving spirit. She worked for many years in the banking industry at Bank of America and Union Bank of California, and furthered her education at the C.H. Mason Bible College, receiving her degree.

As First Lady, Princess was quite gifted, working with her hands. As she worked alongside her husband, Pastor Parker, she held numerous positions within the Ministry: Praise and Worship Leader, Director of Education; and Director of the renown "Manna from Heaven" Food Program, feeding over 300 families per week.

In addition to being a loving and devoted wife, Lady Princess had a never-ending love for her children. She could always be found supporting their dreams and visions, and stressed the importance of education, which is indeed evident in their lives.

It was Friday evening, October 14, 2016, that First Lady Princess Parker responded to the call of God, exchanging this earthly life for life everlasting. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them." (Revelation 14:13)

Lady Princess leaves to celebrate her homegoing, her loving husband of 27 years, Pastor Jeffrey M. Parker Sr.; four wonderful children: Princess J. Parker, Jeffrey M. Parker Jr., Joshua H. Parker, and Joseph I. Parker, all of Oakland, CA; her mother, National Evangelist Wynona Church of Sacramento, CA; one sister: Vernetta Carter Church of Sacramento, CA; along with two brothers: Marcelloqus Church and Sir Von Church, both of Sacramento. She is further survived by her father-in-law, Reverend John H. Parker Sr.; brothers-in-law, Reverend John H. Parker Jr.; Richardo Dewey Sr., and Craig Westbrooks Sr.; three sisters-in-law: Sheila L. Dewey of Sacramento, Evangelist Dr. Sharon Westbrooks of Clarksville, TN, and Goldie Parker of Sacramento. Lady Parker was preceded in death by her father, Madyson Church, brother, Darrius Church, and her mother-in-law, Mother Lillie Mae Parker. She is further survived by a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, co-workers, and many dear friends. Her works and her labor will forever be remembered by her church family, The Church of All Faiths, who were so very dear to her heart.

The Hymn of Praise

"Blessed Assurance"

Verse I:

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine;
O what a foretaste of glory divine.
Heir of salvation, purchase of God.
Born of His Spirit, washed in His blood.

Verse II:

Perfect submission, all is at rest;
I in my Savior
Am happy and blessed.
Watching and waiting,
looking above.
Filled with His goodness,
lost in His love.

Chorus:

This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior, all the day long!
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long!
